NOTIFICATION BY THE BOMBAY OILSEEDS & OILS EXCHANGE LIMITED, BOMBAY

The approval of the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission, under sub-section 1 of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952) read with the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry Notification S.O. 1162 dated the 4th May 1960 has been obtained on the 15th November, 1968, to the following amendments made to the bye-laws of the Bombay Oilseeds and Oils Exchange Limited, Bombay, the same having been placed on the Notice Board of the Exchange pursuant to Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENTS

I. Substitute the following Bye-law for the existing Bye-law 297.

297 (a) If, in the opinion of the Board, an emergency has arisen or exists, or it is expedient in the general interest of the trade so to do the Board may by a resolution passed by itself at a meeting specially convened in this behalf and concurred in by the Forward Markets Commission prohibit as from the date specified in the resolution :

- (i) trading in hedge or delivery contracts in one or more deliveries in one or more commodities at a rate or rates above a maximum and/or below a minimum as may be specified, or
- (ii) all trading in hedge or delivery contracts in one or more deliveries in one or more commodities for a specified period or until further notice as may be specified.

(b) The Board may by a resolution passed by itself from time to time and concurred in by the Forward Markets Commission, extend or reduce the period during which the prohibition imposed under Item (i) or Item (ii) of clause (a) shall be in force, or vary the maximum or minimum rate or rates specified under item (i) of clause (a) above.

(c) The powers specified in clauses (a) and (b) above may be exercised by the Forward Markets Commission in any case, where in the opinion of the Commission, it is expedient in the interest of the trade or the public interest so to do.

II. Substitute the following Bye-law for the existing Bye-law 298 :

298 (a) If the Board considers that a state of emergency exists or is likely to arise, as may in the opinion of the Board make free trading in one or more deliveries of any or all hedge or delivery contracts extremely difficult, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Bye-laws, or in any hedge or delivery contracts made subject to these Bye-laws, the Board may by a resolution passed by itself at a meeting specially convened in this behalf, and concurred in by the Forward Markets Commission,

- (i) fix the date as at the close of which the outstanding contracts as specified in the resolution, shall be deemed to be closed out and the rate or rates at which they shall be deemed to be so closed out, and,
- (ii) fix a special settlement day on which the differences arising out of such closing out shall be paid through the Clearing House.

(b) The relevant clearing bye-laws shall apply to the payment of differences referred to in clause (a) (ii).

III. Substitute the following Bye-law for the existing Bye-law 298A :—

298A. If the Forward Markets Commission is of opinion that continuation of trading in hedge contracts for any delivery or deliveries and/or transferable specific delivery contracts in any delivery or deliveries is detrimental to the interest of the trade or the public interest or to the larger interest of the economy of India and so notifies the President, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these bye-laws, or in any hedge and/or transferable specific delivery contracts made subject to these bye-laws, every hedge and/or transferable specific delivery contract relating to any delivery or deliveries notified under this bye-law and entered into between a member and a member or between a member and a non-member then outstanding, shall be deemed closed out at such rate or rates, appropriate to such contract or contracts and with effect from such date as shall be fixed by the Forward Markets Commission after obtaining the views of the Board if considered necessary and the Board of Directors, or the Clearing Rates Committee appointed under Bye-law 132 shall immediately thereafter fix a special settlement day on which the differences arising out of such closing out shall be paid through the Clearing House and in such a case the relevant Clearing Bye-laws shall apply to the payment of differences referred to hereinabove.
